WORLD'S WORK

Garden City.

Mr. French Strother.

Correspondence in November, 1918, between Mr. Strother and General Churchill re whereabouts of Mr. Page, former editor, who was about to receive commission in Army at time of Armistice. Mr. Strother sent Gen. Churchill copy of "Fighting Germany's Spies".

Correspondence in 1919 re bolshevist positions in Russia for an article on this subject.

February, 1922 - G-2 sent Mr. Strother maps of Pacific and Europe.

March 23, 1922 - Mr. Strother interviewed by Maj. Churchill. Mr. Strother advised that Mr. Chester H. Rowell, of the California State Railway Commission, Flood Bldg., San Francisco, was an expert on Japan, and that Dr. W. W. Peter, 5 Quinsan Gardens, Shanghai, was an expert on China; that Mr. W. Travers Coe, of the Consolidated Coal Co., 28 Clarence Gate Gardens, London, was a 100% American, particularly well informed on economic matters. A.O. of S., G-2, 9 CA, and M/A's Peking & London, advised to develop the above contacts.

Mr. Strother requested estimates on China, Japan, Great Britain, France, Germany, Belgium, Netherlands & Austria, which were furnished March 30.
